Armatus® Online Training
Course Descriptions

CORE COURSES

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Meet Sam</th>
<th>Policies</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Sam molests children. Hear him tell how he gets away with it. Participants will learn:
  * The three types of molesters
  * The three things molesters need in order to offend
  * The types of boundaries offenders often violate | Policies allow your organization to define what’s acceptable – and what isn’t. To complete this course, users read your policies and confirm online that they understand and agree to comply with your policies. |

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>It Happened to Me</th>
<th>Abuse Risk Management for Volunteers</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Anger. Failing grades. Depression. These are just some of the effects of sexual abuse. Participants will learn:
  * The long-term effects of abuse
  * Which children are most vulnerable to abuse
  * Why children don’t report abuse
  * What to do if a child tells you about abuse | Volunteers give their precious time to your organization to serve others. Teach how to protect those you serve from abuse and themselves from false allegations. Participants will learn:
  * The facts about sexual abuse
  * Three steps volunteers can take to keep kids safe
  * How volunteers can protect themselves |

ADVANCED COURSES

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Preventing Sexual Activity Between Young Children</th>
<th>Advanced Abuse Prevention Refresher</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Recent statistics show that incidents of sexual activity between children have increased 300% in the past three years. Participants will learn:
  * How – and where – sexual activity between children typically occurs
  * Steps to prevent sexual activity between children
  * How to respond if sexual activity between children occurs | Once employees and volunteers know the basics about preventing abuse in your organization, it’s time for real life application. Participants will learn:
  * The importance of acting on warning signs, and how to do so
  * How to keep yourself and co-workers safe from false allegations
  * How to apply your knowledge to real-life scenarios |

PRAESIDIUM

Our passion. Your protection.
ADVANCED COURSES CONT.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Mandated Reporting</th>
<th>Navigating the Murky Waters of Sexual Harassment</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Reporting suspected abuse is the first step in protecting children and vulnerable adults. Participants will learn:
  - Why reporting suspected abuse or neglect is critical
  - Who is a Mandated Reporter of suspected abuse and neglect
  - What types of conduct must be reported
  - The responsibilities of a mandated reporter
  - How to respond if a child discloses abuse or neglect | Nobody wants to work in a polluted environment. Participants will learn:
  - How to recognize different types of harassment
  - How to determine if a situation is or is not sexual harassment
  - How to prevent and respond to sexual harassment |

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Now You’re a Supervisor: Preventing Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation</th>
<th>Preventing Sexual Activity Between Young Children</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Being a supervisor comes with lots of benefits – and tons of responsibilities. It’s up to you to make sure discrimination, harassment, or retaliation does not happen on your watch! Participants will learn:
  - Laws and statutes pertaining to discrimination, harassment, and retaliation
  - How to prevent, stop, and respond to discrimination, harassment, and retaliation
  - What to do if someone reports an incident of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation | Recent statistics show that incidents of sexual acting out between children have increased 300% in the past three years. Participants will learn:
  - How – and where – sexual activity between children typically occurs
  - Steps to prevent sexual activity between children
  - How to respond if sexual activity between children occurs |
PROGRAM SPECIFIC COURSES

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>A Day at Day Camp</th>
<th>Catholic Review Board Course</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| “A Day at Day Camp” takes you through a typical day at camp. Participants will learn:
  - How to keep day campers safe from sexual abuse
  - How to protect yourself from false allegations of abuse
  - How to identify and manage high risk situations at day camp
  - What to do if you see something suspicious or inappropriate | The Review Board Course supports Religious Review Board Members assisting the Religious Institute in its efforts to uphold the highest standards in abuse prevention. Participants will learn:
  - The history of the Religious Accreditation Program
  - Overall role of Review Boards
  - The Review Board’s role in reviewing allegations and supervision cases |

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Establishing and Maintaining Healthy Relationships with Athletes (Coming Soon!)</th>
<th>Keeping Your Boys &amp; Girls Club Safe</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Most people who sign up to coach have the best of intentions. But some people coach for the wrong reasons – to take advantage of a child sexually. Participants will learn:
  - The scope and effects of abuse in sports
  - Characteristics of the coach-athlete relationship
  - How to recognize grooming and boundary violations
  - How to manage yourself and others for safety | Every year, nearly five million children and adolescents come to Boys & Girls Clubs after school and in the summer. They expect to have fun and be safe. You can help the children by preventing abuse in your Club. Participants will learn:
  - When, where, and by whom child abuse is most likely to occur at a Club
  - Four steps to keep children safe
  - How to protect yourself from false allegations of abuse |

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Keeping Your Camp Safe</th>
<th>Keeping Your Church Safe</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Camp can be a wonderful experience for kids – but not if they are abused by a counselor or a peer. Participants will learn:
  - Abuse risks at a residential camp
  - Six locations where abuse is most likely to happen at a residential camp
  - How all employees and volunteers can make a difference | God has entrusted church staff with something precious to Him – His children. Participants will learn:
  - Five specific actions to keep children safe
  - The importance of keeping a watchful eye
  - What to do in the case of suspicious behaviors
  - How to respond to inappropriate behavior |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Keeping Your Foster Care Program Safe</th>
<th>Keeping Your Foster Home Safe</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Approximately half of the children in foster care have been sexually abused and almost a third are abused again while in care. Participants will learn:
  - Techniques to establish effective relationships with foster parents and children
  - What to watch for when making home visits
  - Six tested methods to keep foster children safe | Foster parents open their hearts and homes to provide for those in need. But in some cases, foster parents may also be vulnerable to false allegations of abuse. Participants will learn:
  - Unique risks that exist in foster care homes
  - How to protect children in care from abuse, including abuse between children
  - How to protect foster parents from false allegations of abuse |

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Keeping Your Optimist Club Safe</th>
<th>Keeping Your Scholars Safe</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Optimist Clubs around the world are dedicated to “Bringing Out the Best in Kids” and aiming to provide a helping hand to youth. Unfortunately, their lives can be shattered by sexual abuse. Participants will learn:
  - When, where, and by whom child abuse is most likely to occur in Optimist Club programs
  - Four steps to keep children safe
  - How to protect yourself from false allegations of abuse | This course has been developed to assist you in identifying sexual misconduct. As we welcome thousands of scholars to our programs each year, it is important for all of us to take this step to ensure our scholars and staff are safe. Participants will learn:
  - The types of molestors and how they operate
  - Four steps to keep scholars safe
  - How to protect yourself from false allegations of abuse
  - How to identify and address sexual harassment |

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Keeping Your School Safe</th>
<th>Keeping Your Y Safe</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Parents send their children to school to have fun, meet challenges, make friends, practice skills, and learn. They also expect them to be safe. Participants will learn:
  - When, where, and by whom child abuse is most likely to occur at school
  - Specific steps to take to keep children safe at school
  - How to prevent false allegations of abuse | Ys build strong kids, strong families, and strong communities. But to do so, your employees must have the skills and knowledge to keep those in your care safe from offenders. Participants will learn:
  - Six potentially dangerous situations at Ys
  - When, where and by whom child abuse is most likely to occur
  - Four steps to take to keep kids safe |